"REFLECTIONS"

This year brings remembrances of both good and bad,
The sad memories of the followers who were left
 leaderless when shots again rang out,
Memories of riots and revolts;

And there are the good memories :-
The extension of life by heart transplants,
Victorious achievements in space

And
Our personal memories -
Pep rallies, football and basketball games,
 proms, dances, court, and many other activities
That we once again REFLECT upon:

ADVERTISEMENTS

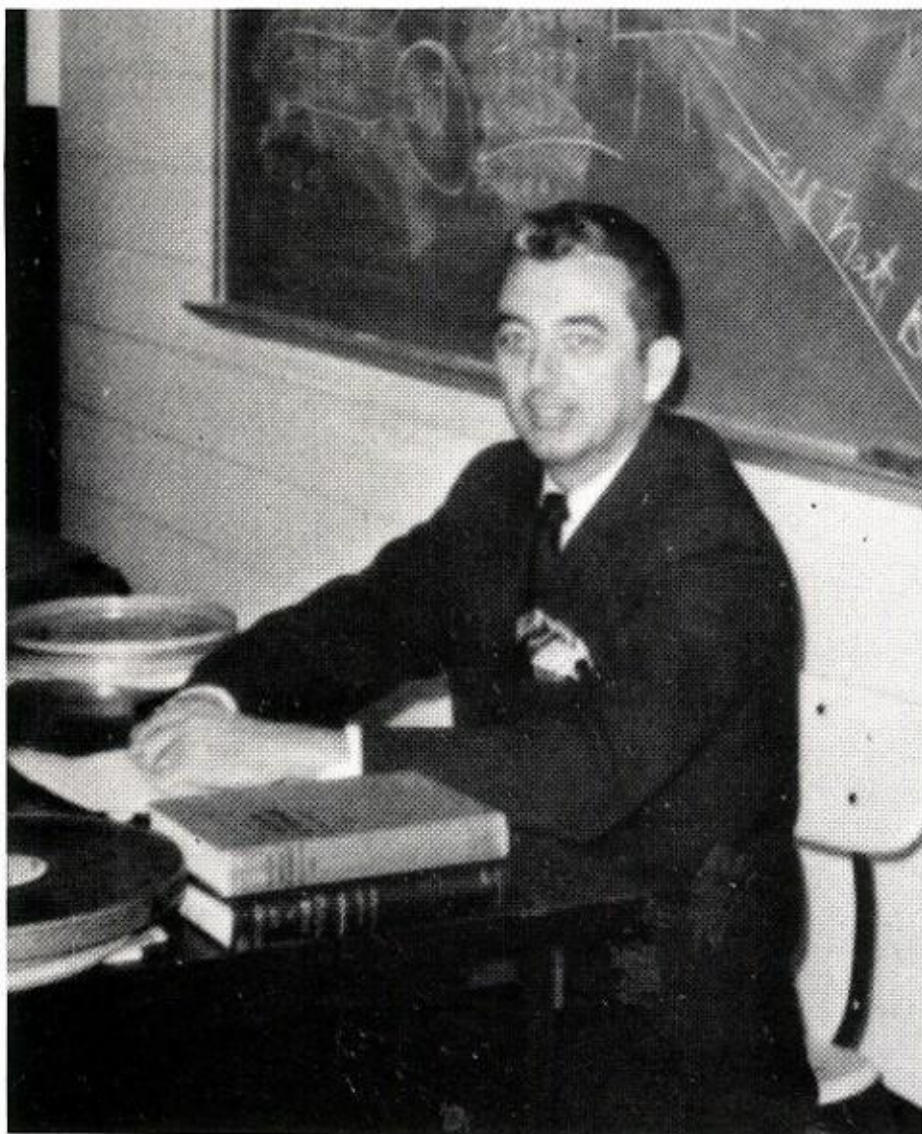

"A TEACHER SHOULD BE DEDICATED TO HIS TASK"

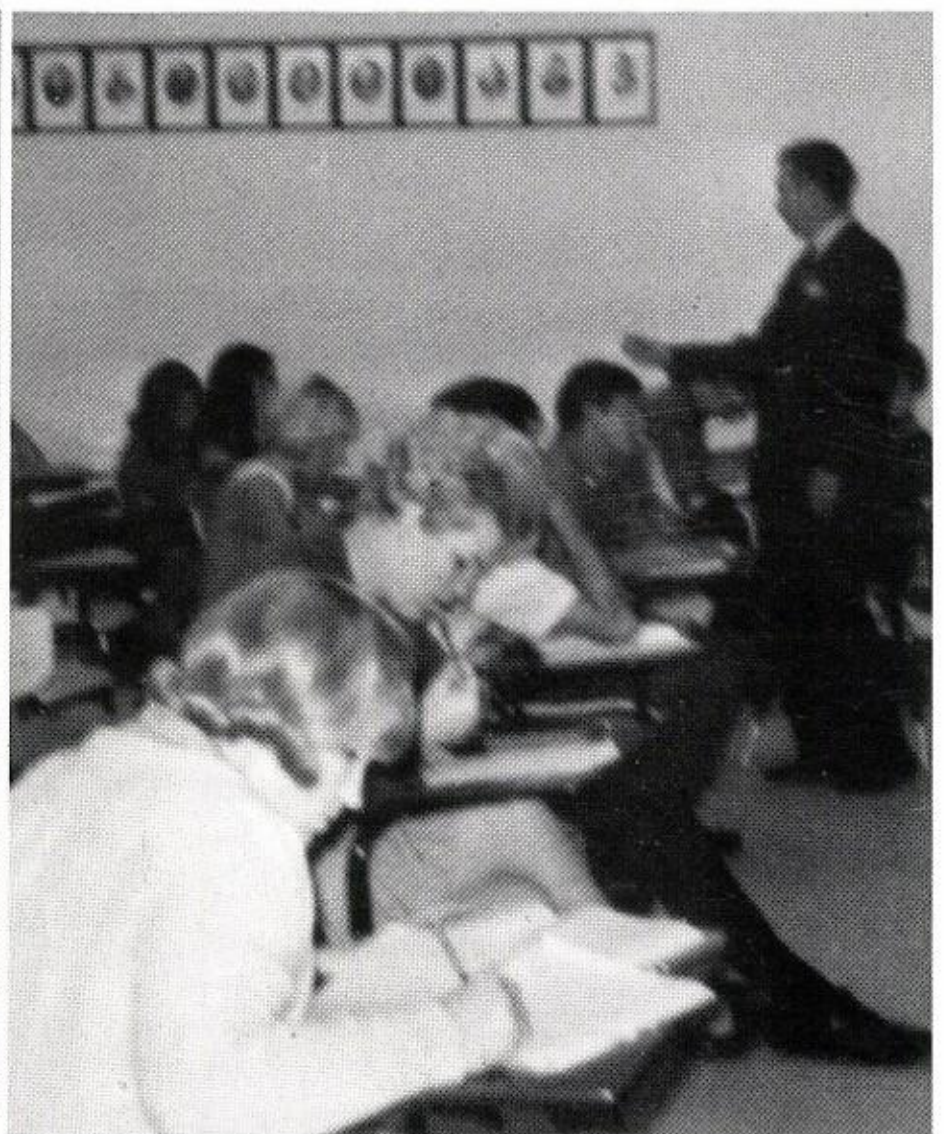

Mr. Richardson, you have been dedicated in your ten years of teaching. You continue being fair, firm and consistent in your life's work of teaching; of helping us on the road to maturity. We appreciate your guidance with the Student Council, your teaching us to shoulder our responsibilities and your good sense of humor. How can we say "thank you" to a man who has done all of this? We could have offered you a gift, presented you with money, but that is too meaningless for you. The 1969 Panther is only a tangible part of an intangible feeling for you - our admiration. Therefore, the student body of C. E. King dedicates our all-important yearbook to you.

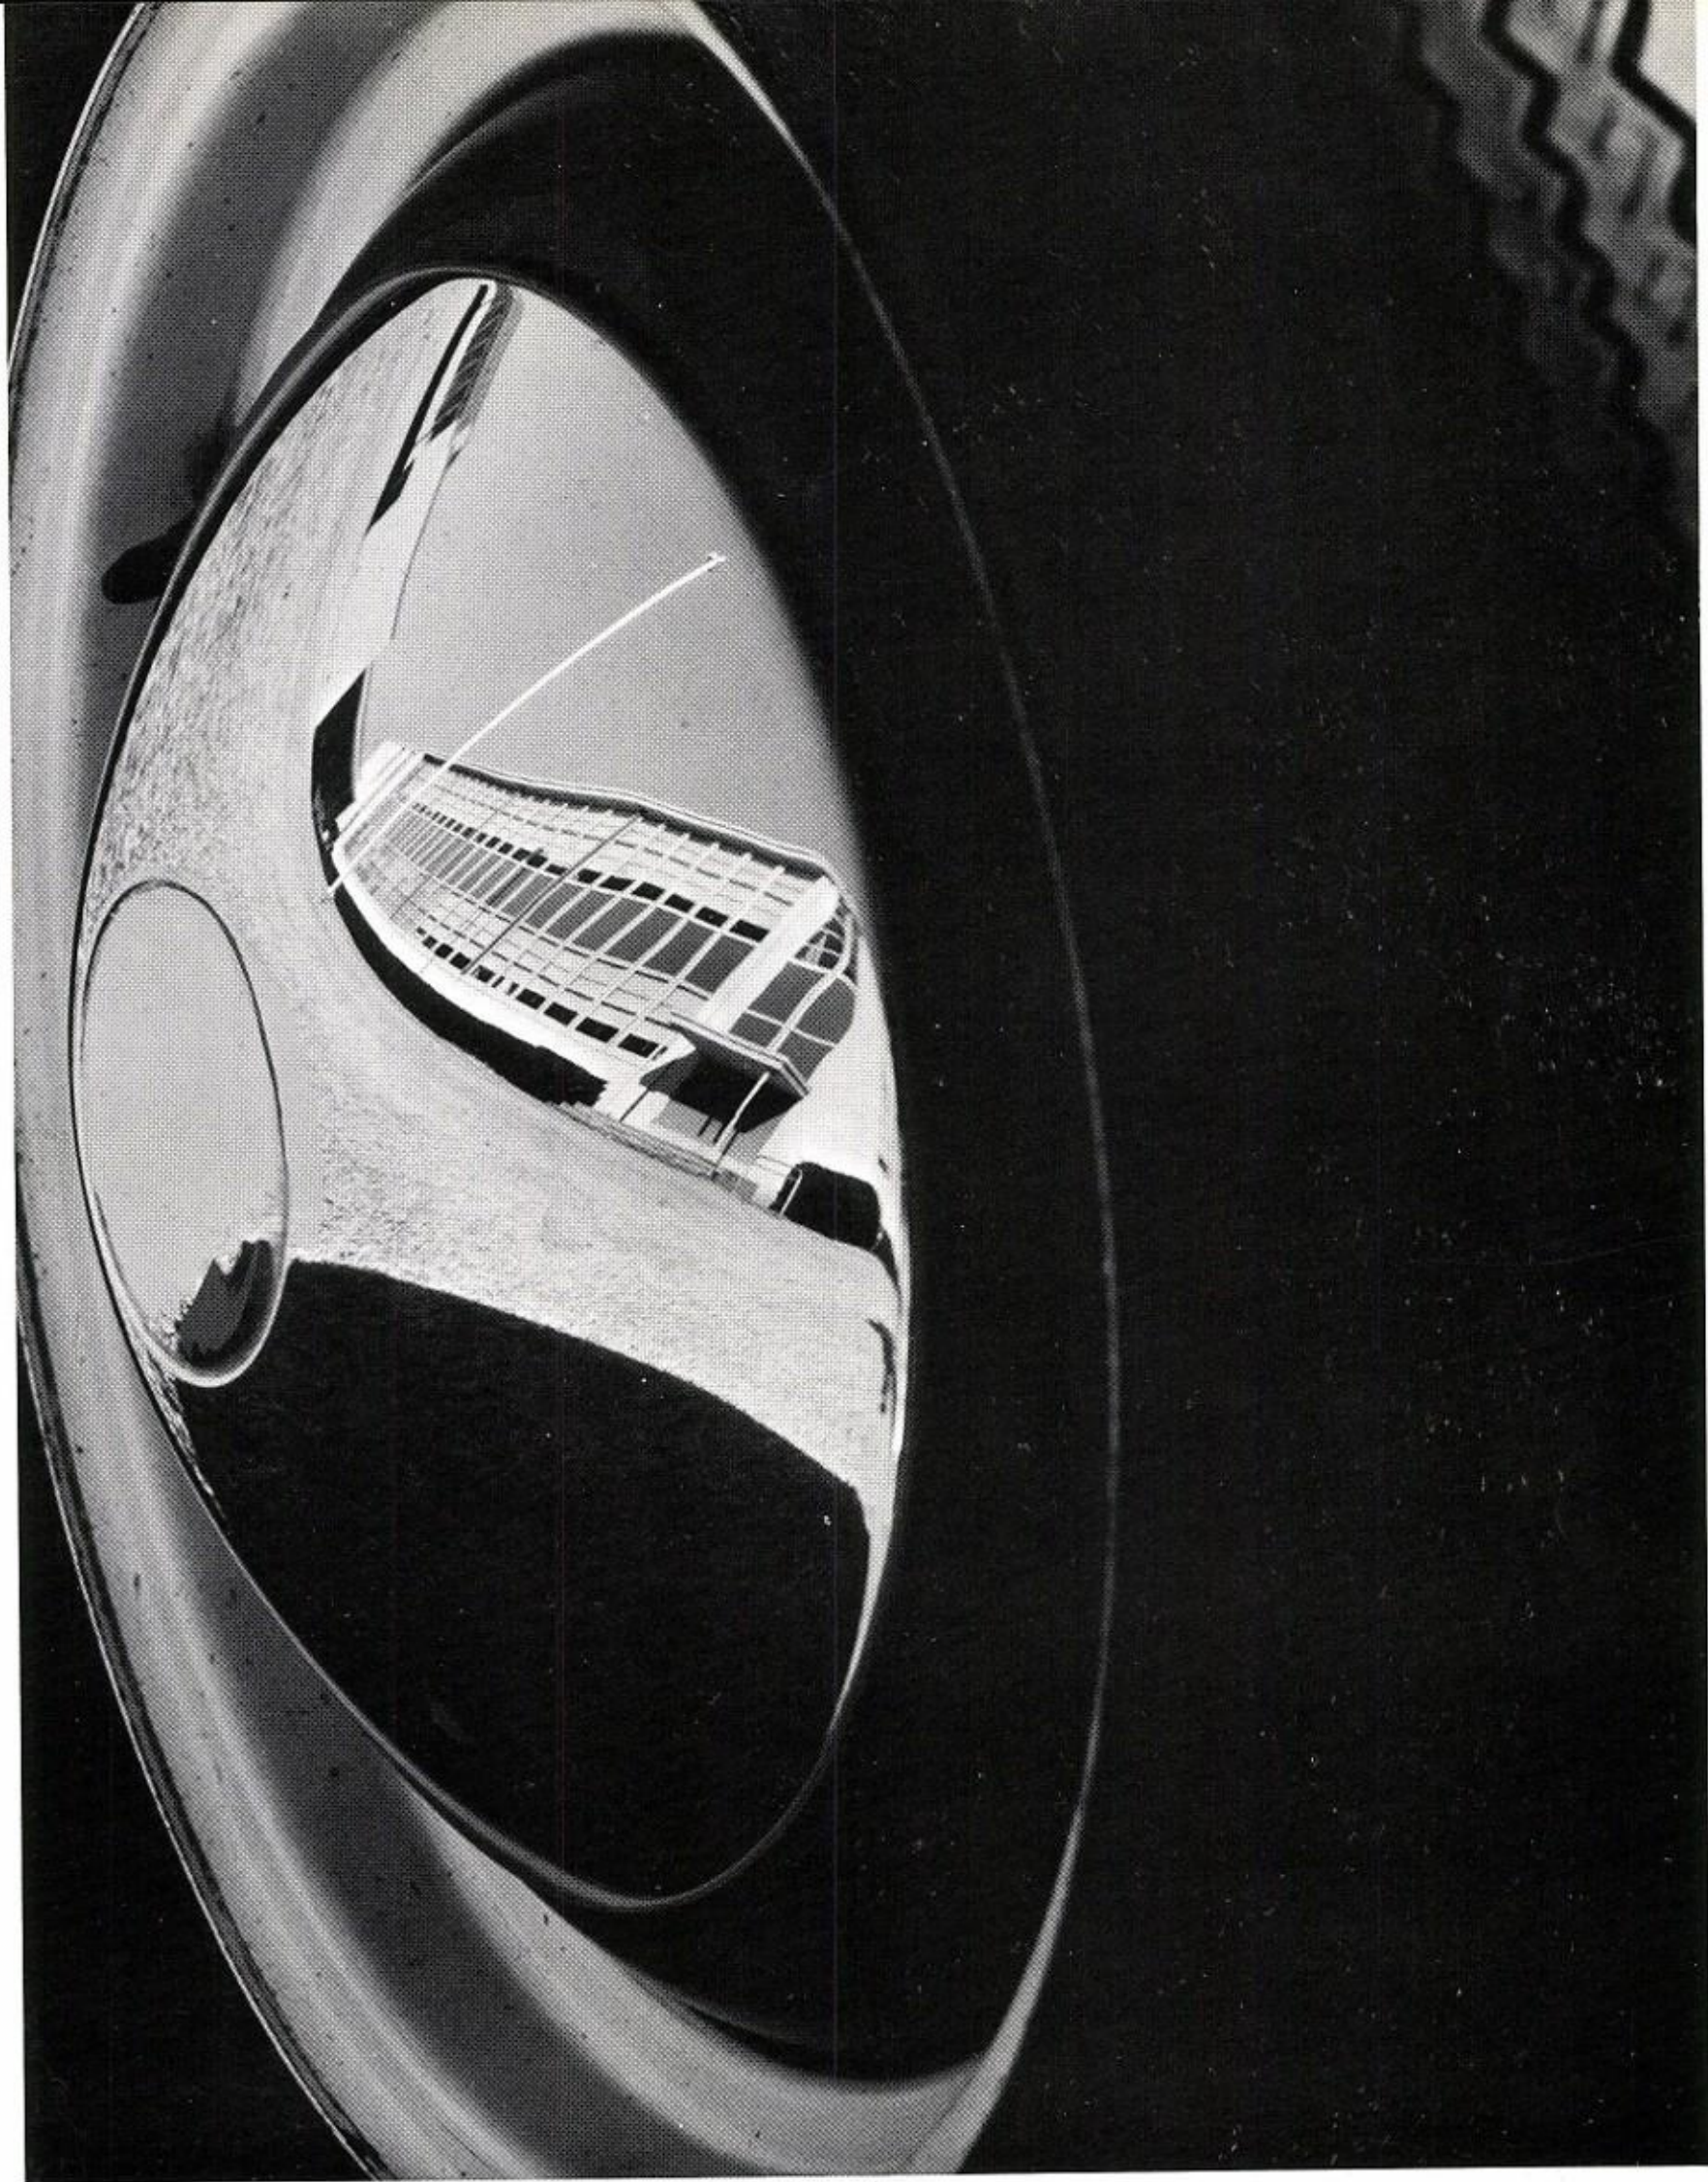

Loafing, Mr. Richardson?

Prodding us along.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. LLOYD DICKENS
Superintendent

Our newly elected superintendent, Mr. Lloyd Dickens, as he plans a new and successful school year. He gives generously of his time to promote better understanding of education in the community. He will continue to receive sincere respect and admiration from the student body.

SHELDON SCHOOL BOARD 1968-1969

MR. L. E. MONAHAN
Principal

Time can only build upon his deep insight into people and erect a monument of admiration and respect for him. Over the sea of trivia that engulfs our daily existence, he constructs with wisdom and honor, a bridge of opportunity that opens to us a plateau of knowledge.

We welcome our new principal, Mr. J. White.

ROYALWOOD ELEMENTARY CAFETERIA

We, the student body of '69, wish to express our deepest regret for the loss of a dedicated worker as well as a close friend to all. Mrs. Caldwell, was a diligent employee of King High for nine years, and seemed to enjoy the trials and tribulations that accompanied each day. The enthusiasm shown in her work brought forth smiles from many of her faithful students and co-workers. Even though Mrs. Caldwell is no longer with us, her bright and cheerful spirit remains with us forever.

In each of us lies a memory of a proud and unselfish man, Mr. J. H. Crenshaw. The patriotism he has inspired us with will never die. His dedication to his country and profession were unsurpassed. During his seven years of hard work at King, his determination as well as untiring energy, proved indispensable in the pursuit of truth.

THE ROAD GOODBYE

The road I took was named Goodbye
The path looked strange. I wondered why
It left familiar things behind.
A hand caught mine ... I paid no mind.
The stranger never once did say
Just what had brought him on my way.
On we went, and some afraid
I wished I hadn't come, but stayed.
All the friends that I once knew
Took a road named Goodbye too.
There were no two roads just the same
Though all were called Goodbye by name.
The road went on; we went on too,
And I was sad, for then I knew
That never could I be the same
Having walked down Goodbye Land.
And though I couldn't understand
We walked together hand in hand.
We said no words, but just walked on,
I thought of things now past and gone.
I thought of games I'd lost and won,
I thought of all the things I'd done,
I thought of those I loved and cared,
Of times we'd had, of things we'd shared.
I thought of those I'd come to know.
Just knowing them - they'd helped me so.
I thought of things, of tears I'd shed ...
Those same things now brought smiles instead.
The tasks I'd done, those left to do,
I wondered how I'd make it through
When something inside seems to say,
"The best you can from day to day."
The way was rough; I knew the score,
It never ends ... there's always more.
But now I know that all in all
Each thing in its own place will fall.
I thought of the happy days,
And sad ones now just seemed a haze,
And in a flash I came to see
How much the past has meant to me.
We walked along - I wondered where
The future led and what was there.
The past still echoed from behind
I was its, and it was mine.
But in my heart was still a fear,
And in my eye a shining tear;
Yet on my face there was a smile,
And we walked forward all the while.
I walked along the road Goodbye.
I looked back once ... I heaved a sigh.
Then I remembered at my side -
My silent, but my constant guide.
The stranger's hand I felt in mine.
I looked into his face this time.
I asked his name - he turned just so,
He smiled and said, "I'm called Hello."
